

THE MILLBROOK ROTARY CLUB & MILLBROOK ARTS GROUP PRESENTS

New Year's Eve

MILLBROOK

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 31

Trickster Coyote Shares the Fire

A Native American Trickster Tale

Performances at 4:00, 5:00 & 6:00 pm | Grace Church Parish Hall, Millbrook NY

Be in the Show!

Join Leslie Elias, Connecticut Arts Hero, for a participatory performance with Daniel Saed, Natalie Resto, Cameron Sutphin, & Arie Saed

Written & directed by Leslie Elias | Costumes and Masks by Ellen Moon

Join the cast and become a part of the play! Dance with the "Fire Beings", howl and climb with Cunning Coyote and more! Find out how Trickster Coyote risks his life to share fire with the people! For children of all ages.

Suggested donation, $5 for a button granting access to multiple events, available starting December 15 at Reardon Briggs, Village Wine, Merritt Books, and at the event. Button features the winning design, created by a local Millbrook High School student.

Refreshments available from the VFW and Crepes Royale

GrumblingGryphons.org | 860.672.0286 | grumblinggryphons@gmail.com

@NEWYEARESEVEMILLBROOK ON INSTAGRAM

www.millbrookrotary.org